

COMMANDER SIGAL BAR-ZVI

COMMANDER OF THE AYALON SUB-DISTRICT

Sigal Bar-Zvi was born in Israel in 1969.

Commander Bar-Zvi enlisted in the Israel Police in 1991 and served in an undercover unit in the Central Unit of the Central District.

She continued her service in a number of positions including Human Resources, Operations Officer and Head of the Traffic Division of the Sharon Sub-District. She was later appointed as Commander of the Ra'nana Police Station as one of the first women to be a police station commander.

In July 2009, she was appointed Commander of the North Tel Aviv Police Station and in 2012 as Commander of the Petah Tikva Police Station.

In September 2013 Commander Bar-Zvi was appointed to be the Commander of Ben Gurion International Airport Sub-District. She is the first woman in the Israel Police to be appointed as Commander of a Sub-District.

In 2014, during the Arab riots and terrorist activities, she was appointed to head one of the operational command centers in Jerusalem.

In 2015, she studied for a year in the prestigious National Security Academy.

In August 2016 she was appointed as Commander of the Ayalon Sub-District of the Tel Aviv District.

Commander Bar-Zvi has a B.A. in Business Administration and an M.A. in Policy and Government.

