PROFILES IN PEACE

Voices of Peacebuilders in the midst of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict

by Ron Kronish

Taking its inspiration from JFK's Profiles in Courage, this new groundbreaking book explores the work of Israeli Jews and Palestinian Arabs in Israel and Palestine who have dedicated their lives to building peaceful relations among the two peoples who seek to live in peace and harmony with one another. These people have acted courageously and consistently in their work for peace, which has become the hallmark of their lives. In this book, the author profiles the lives, thoughts, feelings, and actions of six persistent peacebuilders-- men and women, secular and religious-- 3 Jewish Israelis and 3 Palestinian Arabs:

Rabbi Michael Melchior

Professor Mohammed Dajani

Professor Galia Golan

Ms. Huda Abuarquob

Mrs. Hadassah Froman

Bishop Munib Younan

When you read this book, you will learn about their visions for peace and their activities to bring their ideals to fruition, in the real world of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Profiles in Peace is now available on Amazon Books as an e-book or paperback

Or on Barnes and Noble as a paperback

PROFILES IN PEACE

Rabbi Dr. Ron Kronish has devoted more than 30 years of his professional life to being a peacebuilder in Israel. As a master educator, Kronish helps us understand the context for the current conflict, lifts up the stories of some of the most inspiring and audacious peace-builders on both side of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and shares their wisdom for a path forward. Profiles in Peace is essential reading for everyone who feels invested in peace between the Israeli and Palestinian communities, and who needs inspiration to continue on that path.

--Rabbi Angela W. Buchdahl, Senior Rabbi, Central Synagogue, NYC

This book is a must read for anyone interested in the efforts of Jews and Palestinians, six of whom are highlighted in it and whose own words we can read, to bring about a peaceful co-existence in Israel and its neighboring communities. It provides lessons in interreligious and intercultural dialogue that readers around the world can adapt for use in their own communities, to work together across religious and ethnic divides for the betterment of all, especially those in need. Highly recommended!

--Dr. Eugene J. Fisher, Distinguished Professor of Theology, Saint Leo University

Peace is not forged by documents or treaties, it is made possible thanks to the efforts of people, individuals of courage borne by compassion and seasoned by the pain they see and feel around them. Courage needs strategic wisdom and the ability to see beyond the moment. Some of these agents of peace are identified here by Ron Kronish, who is, truthfully, also one of these agents of peace. This book is a small testament to the larger-than-life people our world needs.
